Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 67. Deposit in Court.

In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party and by leave of court, may deposit with the court all or any part of such sum or thing. When it is admitted by the pleading, or shown upon the examination of a party, that a party has possession, or control of, any money or other thing capable of delivery, which, being the subject of litigation, is held by the party as trustee for another party, or which belongs or is due to another party, the court may order the same, upon motion, to be deposited in court or delivered to such party, upon such conditions as may be just. Money or any other thing deposited into court under this rule shall be deposited and withdrawn, subject to the further directions of the court, and as provided by the statutes of this state.
